welcoming you this summer

Derby Cathedral Quarter is the individual, diverse and inspiring heart of the city centre with something for everyone during the summer months.

For the past 15 years businesses across the Cathedral Quarter have been working together under the successful Business Improvement District (BID) programme to make the area more inviting to visitors in a number of ways and to encourage new businesses and investment.

This Summer will see the return of your favourite yearly events to the city centre such as Derby Feste and the Derby Folk Festival both of which are supported by the Cathedral Quarter BID, along with some new events which have been funded by the BID to encourage you to come back to the heart of the city for some fun and enjoyment and to reinvigorate some community spirit!

This issue of CQ Summer Life also takes a look at some of the wonderful businesses in the area who offer a unique and welcoming experience and continue to champion the retail offering on your local high street.

The AGA was invented by Dr Gustaf Dalén, a Swedish physicist blinded in a terrible accident. In 1922 he was convalescing at home when he realised his wife was using a dangerous, dirty and time consuming range cooker. He wanted to create an alternative that was clean, economical, easy to use and produced great food. The AGA was an immediate success and came to Britain in 1929, where it has been at home ever since.

Celebrations at Martin&Co

Ten years ago, Martin&Co moved from very small premises on the outskirts of the Cathedral Quarter into a brand new office on St James St. In that ten years the Estate Agency has gone from strength to strength, and now has offices in Castle Donington and Coalville as well as Derby.

This has now been recognised by the Best Estate Agent Guide 2022 which has conferred a Gold Award on Martin&Co and rated the agency as 'Exceptional'. Together with Rightmove, The Estate Agency Guide conducts the biggest mystery shopping review process ever undertaken of the property industry. Only 5% of estate agency branches in the country achieve this award which shows 'an outstanding level of service and care towards prospective clients'.

The team are very proud to have won this award, particularly given the issues that local businesses have had to deal with in the last two years.

Being part of the Cathedral Quarter is important to Martin&Co. At the hub of the City Centre the office is easily available for clients to have face to face appointments, which can be so important when you are making one of the biggest life decisions buying, selling, or renting property.

The Directors, David McKnight and Sian Turner are also very pleased to now be involved in supporting City Centre arts projects. They firmly support the idea that investment in art and culture benefits the local economy and community.

A family business, Martin&Co offers a bespoke Estate agency service to vendors, landlords and investors, as well as offering exceptional standards of customer service and support to buyers and tenants. Whether you are a first-time buyer, seasoned landlord or starting out as a new investor the team can support and advise you to achieve the best outcomes during your property journey.

Derby Swap Shop goes from strength to strength

It's been a busy few months for the swapping revolution born out of Covid and operating from think3's studio in the heart of the Cathedral Quarter.

Known locally as Derby Swap Shop, the innovative business to business platform has gone from strength to strength and is now UK-wide – lending itself to branding as The UK Swap Shop.

On May 4th, Swap Shop celebrated their second birthday and what a wild ride the past two years have been, with over 350 swaps posted on the site to date. Swap Shop was created purposefully to help small businesses and charities during the first lockdown as a way to support them to survive whilst continuing to build their organisations. As many firms still continue to face challenges today, due to inflation and subsequent cost of living rises, Swap Shop continues to help offset some costs for businesses by facilitating these swaps. All for free.

Recently, Swap Shop won two local awards for their work: the Mainframe Awards for Best Local Network and the Federation of Small Business (FSB) East Midlands region Community Award. # THE ART & POETRY PROJECT

The Cathedral Quarter BID have partnered with St Peters Quarter BID and Derby City Council to bring the Art and Poetry project to the city centre over the summer.

Both BIDs were awarded monies from the Additional Restrictions Grant (ARG) Vibrancy Fund which had to be used to support businesses through improved experience and increased footfall whilst creating a more interesting and vibrant environment for visitors to the area.

Working with local artists and The Poetry Project, we have installed a number of artworks across the city alongside empowering and motivational poetry in business windows to create one cohesive art and poetry trail for the public to enjoy.

All the poems have been composed by poet James McInerney, the driving force behind The Poetry Project, an initiative that promotes the healing power of words in public areas. At the same time, artwork designed by Midlands-based artists has been added to windows of six unoccupied units in the city. Artists involved are Lynne Hollingsworth, Carla Dee and artists from Derby based charity Artcore; Theodora Prassa, Joseph Winsborrow, Sofia Yala, and Craig Proud. Two of the windows also incorporate projections provided by QUAD which bring the artwork to life.

Further information regarding the Art and Poetry Project can be found on our website www.cathedralquarterderby.co.uk

From Pub to Pulpit

From Pub to Pulpit is a celebration of Ralph Vaughan Williams' 150th anniversary, and includes music from Broomdasher, Coracle, and the celebrated Derby Cathedral Choir.

An acapella folk group, a classically trained instrumental trio, twenty cathedral organists and choirs, community choirs, and concert audiences will turn folk songs into hymns in a flagship nationwide tour.

From Pub to Pulpit is an imaginative and rousing concert tour that brings to life the musical journey of folk songs Vaughan Williams collected before "borrowing" the tunes for hymn arrangements in The English Hymnal he edited in 1906.

This event is also the only project that crosses the boundaries of Vaughan Williams's work, bringing several genres together in a popular and accessible way, so is definitely not one to be missed!

30th September 6.00pm
Tickets £12-£5 available from Derby Live.

The Sixteen Choral Pilgrimage

Hubert Parry's Songs of Farewell must surely rank among some of the finest choral works ever written. Deeply affected by the First World War, Parry sought poetry that would reflect not only peace and unity and the search for a better world, but also an escape from the horrors of war. The poems Parry chose to set are sublime, be they metaphorical poetry by John Donne and Henry Vaughan or the aching beauty of Thomas Campion's verse. Perfectly complimenting the rich sonority of Parry's Songs are three short pieces by Campion, a selection of medieval carols and a new work by Cecilia McDowall

Derby Folk Festival

10.30am – Marc Block

A seasoned "folkie", Marc is a highly engaging and personable performer, disarming and wooing his audiences with his emotional honesty, and combining tradition and innovation with a magical and queer slant to his songwriting.

2.15pm – The Carrivick Sisters

It's a while since Laura and Charlotte were with us (in their own right, and with Midnight Skyracer), and we can't wait to hear them in the Cathedral this year. Their bluegrass and folk style bring an entertaining live performance with tight sibling vocal harmonies and multi-instrumental virtuosity.

5.30pm – Janice Burns & Jon Doran, Hannah Sanders & Ben Savage

Janice Burns & Jon Doran

A new duo at the festival, we know you'll enjoy them as much as us! Their compelling storytelling comes alive through tight vocal harmonies and sensitive interplay between mandolin and bouzouki, with arrangements that balance intricacy with energy. Their dynamic performances are a celebration of their own musical and geographic backgrounds, embracing the differences that connect them.

Hannah Sanders & Ben Savage

Although they've been with us individually, we're really looking forward to hearing Hannah and Ben's lovely duo. They cross genres, with a touch of 'Americana', yet are quintessentially English. Traditional, yet contemporary; playful and instinctive; they make music with such panache and natural chemistry it makes perfect sense.

Saturday 1st October
See the Derby Folk Festival Listing for ticket pricing.
