DERBY CATHEDRAL QUARTER YOUR GUIDE TO

DERBY CATHEDRAL QUARTER

Unique independent shops, great cafes, restaurants and bars, stunning arts and cultural venues and historic landmarks - Derby's Cathedral Quarter has it all.

Voted 'Best City Location' at the 2016 Great British High Street awards, the Cathedral Quarter is home to over 500 businesses and is synonymous with a diverse range of premium brand shopping and designer goods, with many shops offering well-known brands as well as items not available anywhere else in the city.

If it's a spot of pampering you need, you will find some of the best independent and national names in hair, health and beauty whilst afterwards the myriad of cafes, bars and restaurants provide the perfect opportunity to relax and enjoy the wonderful surroundings.

With a host of fantastic cultural venues, as well as family friendly street entertainment, there is always something happening in the Cathedral Quarter and, if your stay is for a weekend or even longer, the Cathedral Quarter has a great choice of hotels in which to stay.

Whilst here, look out for the Cathedral Quarter Rangers, dressed in their distinctive burgundy uniforms, here to welcome you and guide you to wherever you want to go in the area. We look forward to seeing you soon!

THE HISTORICAL HEART OF THE CITY

Derby Cathedral Quarter has proudly preserved its charm and character over the centuries and mirror's the city's rich tapestry of culture and heritage.

It is the historic heart of the city with much of the architecture in the Cathedral Quarter dating back to Tudor, Georgian and Victorian times. The mainly pedestrianised streets allow you to wander at your leisure and to soak up the unique atmosphere of the area.

Perhaps the crowning glory is the splendid Derby Cathedral with its 16th Century 212ft tower. Grade II listed St Werburgh's Church is a superb example of gothic survival architecture whilst the Silk Mill Museum stands on the site of the world's first factory and is part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site.

You will also find the Cathedral Quarter an excellent place to learn more about the importance of the city in major historical events, from the birth of the industrial revolution to the demise of Bonnie Prince Charlie.

A QUALITY SHOPPING DESTINATION

With a reputation for first class customer service, premium brands and quality produce, the Cathedral Quarter is a fantastic retail destination which provides visitors with a unique and memorable shopping experience.

The area around historic Sadler Gate is a charming mix of boutique shops, cafes and restaurants including national retailers White Stuff, Dr Martens, and Joules. Connecting Sadler Gate to The Strand is the 19th century Strand Arcade, home to a diverse range of specialist shops, whilst The Strand itself, is a wonderful crescent of Victorian buildings housing a plethora of quality independent retailers.

In the shadow of Derby Cathedral, Iron Gate is home to a host of quality independent retailers. Other streets well worth a visit are the bustling Corn Market and the delightful Queen Street, Cheapside and Wardwick.

The wonderful Victorian Market Hall, situated off the Market Place is a fantastic mix of eclectic stalls, many of which have been a firm favourite with generations of shoppers.

Meander through the historic streets and explore the courtyards and arcades offering a range of specialist stores and award winning independent retailers.

ARTS, CULTURE & LEISURE

With a wealth of cultural and entertainment venues in the area, the Cathedral Quarter is the heartbeat of the city with a unique and vibrant atmosphere.

Derby Museum & Art Gallery, located on the beautiful Strand, is home to a fascinating and diverse range of internationally important collections. The Silk Mill Museum, situated on the banks of the River Derwent, is currently undergoing a transformation into the Museum of Making which will display fascinating items from Derby's rich industrial history. The Museum will re-open in 2020.

Located on the Market Place, QUAD is a modern cinema, gallery, café bar and workshop venue. The nearby Guildhall Theatre is currently undergoing renovation and is due to re-open in September 2019, when it will resume its offering of intimate live theatre and musical performances. Situated on Chapel Street, Diéda is a unique venue offering a dance-focussed arts programme of performances, classes and development activity.

As well as fantastic venues, the Cathedral Quarter is also home to a diverse range of events and entertainment throughout the year including the regular CQ Saturdays events, Furthest from the Sea Festival, Derby Festé and Derby Folk Festival.

CAFÉS, DELIS & RESTAURANTS

The Cathedral Quarter has a fantastic array of award-winning cafes, delis and restaurants with something to suit every palate and budget.

Whatever the time or day, with over sixty establishments ranging from small independents to international chains, you really will be spoilt for choice.

The Cathedral Quarter has a vibrant café culture with both indoor and outdoor seating, enabling you to catch up with friends and colleagues, soak up the relaxed atmosphere and watch the world go by.

Restaurant cuisines range from Thai, Indian, Caribbean, Latin American, and a host of European fares and from a quick bite to eat to seven course taster menus. The majority of establishments can be found on or around four main streets in the area; Friar Gate, the Wardwick, Sadler Gate and Iron Gate.

Want something on the move? You will find a number of quality delicatessens, providing everything from sandwiches and soup to home-cooked fare and gourmet delights.

VIBRANT NIGHTLIFE

As dusk settles, the Cathedral Quarter swaps its relaxed and gentle pace for a vibrant evening economy, providing the visitor with a diverse range of options for a memorable night out.

The Cathedral Quarter has an eclectic mix of bars and nightclubs with a venue to suit all tastes and moods. For ale enthusiasts, there is a vast choice of venues, leading the Lonely Planet to declare the city as the 'real ale capital of the world'. Specialist bars abound in the area with venues specialising in wine, spirits, cocktails and champagne making the decision on where to go a difficult choice.

The highest density of venues can be found around the Market Place, Friar Gate, Sadler Gate and Iron Gate whilst a wander around the streets will lead you to some real hidden gems.

Away from the pubs, bars and clubs you will find some fantastic venues in which to enjoy a film, exhibition or show whilst close proximity to the bus station, car parks and taxi ranks ensure your journey home will be a pleasant experience.

CAR PARKING & PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Located adjacent to the inner ring road and with easy access to the main trunk roads and the M1, the Cathedral Quarter is easily reached by car and public transport.

You will find excellent parking facilities in the area including three multi-storeys and on-street parking. There are two park and ride sites within a few miles of the city centre at Pride Park and Meteor Centre, with buses every 10-15 minutes.

There is also an extensive public transport network covering the East Midlands and beyond with Derby's modern bus station only a short walk away on Morledge, whilst the railway station is only a 15-20 minute stroll or a short taxi ride away.

For keen cyclists the Cathedral Quarter is also served by a number of cycle routes and cycles can be securely stored at Park Bikeworks on Full Street. The Derby e-bikes scheme also allows users to enjoy a more leisurely ride to explore the Cathedral Quarter area and beyond.
